Dear Mr. Walker,

It is with sincere appreciation and deep gratitude that I am writing to you. Your visit to West Georgia College on October 12 and 13 was an inspirational experience. The workshops on Body Language and Multicultural Sensitivity for the staff and student leaders have been characterized as insightful, yet enjoyable learning avenues. Thank you for providing such a valuable experience to a campus that is much in need of this information.

In addition to the workshops, the performance "Can I Speak For You, Brother?" was no less than phenomenal! I commend you on the superb work that AADC has done in pulling together such an impressive collaboration of leaders to characterize in providing this look at our history. Though I cannot speak for everyone, from the responses I have received I would venture to say that your's was one of the most stimulating and touching events to be hosted on our campus. Hats off to you and the rest of AADC!

May your remaining seasons be blessed.

Sincerely,

ANGELA S. HAUGABROOK

P.S.

I failed to get your autograph. If possible, would you please sign my copy of your play and return it to me? I would be most grateful.
